

Hobart Airport

Hobart, Tasmania

Contract since 1988

Delaware North's history with Hobart Airport dates back to 1988 and was strengthened in 2005 with the awarding of a new 10 year contract.

This contract was aligned to the new redevelopment of the Airport.

The three outlets Delaware North created embrace an "essentially local" appeal through the retail product mix, physical environment, marketing and our staff.

NATIONAL FRANCHISE PARTNER

VILLA & HUT KAFE - LANDSIDE

The Villa & Hut Kafe specialises in crisp tossed-to-order salads, warm grilled foccacias, blended smoothies & shakes, fresh squeezed juices, gourmet soups, and its famous chai's, coffee's & herbal teas.

Villa & Hut Kafe opened in late 2008 and has been warmly embraced by travellers, meeters & greeters and staff.

PROPRIETARY CONCEPTS

ABBOTT'S

Australia's first cookbook was written in Hobart by Edward Abbott in 1844 and published in London by Sampson Low, Son and Marston.

Abbott's café combines a traditional snacks offer with the growing demand for more contemporary menu options that reflect healthier eating patterns.

Display cabinets present a visual menu of many items with a further selection made to order.

1848 – Tasmania's first experiment with grape vines resulted in a white wine that was shown at the Paris 1848 exhibition."

A proudly Tasmanian bar, 1848 serves a menu of outstanding Tasmanian wines, bar snacks, coffee and meals with a strong focus on locally grown produce. Clean sight lines position 1848 as the visual hero of the precinct.

A global leader in hospitality and food service.
